All Cambridge students from stages 7 and above enthusiastically worked in their groups to come up with a project on History of Geography and Health Issues. We are sure the experience they gained through these research activities and project works are going to help them in their future.

TED TALK SLOKA

SNAKE & LADDER

Since our children are the future stars of the world, TED Talk Sloka was a platform for them to share their stories and prepare them to address the world with their moving words. Our Slokites went deeper into fascinating topics of their life based on the theme - Snake and ladder. Children were spontaneous in talking about their struggles and achievements. Our Dean and principal Vishwanath Reddy and CMO Sanar Arun Kumar also interacted with students sharing their life journey.

Education is not just going to school and getting a degree. It's also about expanding knowledge and absorbing life knowledge.
